Should I throw everything away and run with $25000?
 It will hurt my family and friends
 Mom
 Dad
 Rich
 Joe
 Cats
 I could be arrested while on bail (and loose chances to decide)
 Case might not be strong enough to prosecute
 Victims contradict each other
 I have moderate argument against this type of behavior
 Bail is suspiciously low
 Victim told me based primarily on lip
 Victim who told me is only 6 years old
 I was not arrested
 Case might be un-winnable
 I am a registered sex offender with criminal history
 I was in DL near time when incident occurred
 I was driving a red grand am
 Victim has told me as perp
 I have a chance to live out my fantasies
 Revenge
 Sex
 No more cares
 I could go to prison for the rest of my life and never know what could have been
 I will not have access to this money again
 If I do go to prison
 I will have Joe's support while there
 I will be able to study and write
 I have a chance to be traditionally successful if I hang around
 If I win I am still a sex offender
 I may eventually be found out

? Assume I fight and win. What will I have?
 Family
 Opportunity

Appointment Body

Left Fargo in Grand Arn around noon headed for Minneapolis. Arrived Minneapolis and tried to rent SUV at airport as planned but card was denied. Panicked thinking they were on me already, but then realized later that my limit was not high enough for the number of days I was asking. So I went to non-airport rental place (Next Day, Enterprise) and rented '05 Jeep Grand Cherokee for 5 days (including weekend) due back next Wednesday. Spent night at Hotel 6 on 1494 in Minneapolis. Also went to clubs, met guy who told me about how to get invited to the parties were the real fun is.

Stayed awake by smoking crack, but got tired of looking for safe places to smoke while driving, so I crashed (on the drugs not the car) and then got a roadside hotel with a cute small little boy playing in the parking lot but he had his head shaved funny and that turned me off.

Paid for Museum of flight, saw pretty flower, tried to pick it, but it got away. Followed red classic jeep with two flowers, somehow they picked me up and drove to police station. Decided that method was too risky. Headed back to I-29 and then South. Found deserted camp ground. Slept in car there. God told be what he wanted me to do.
