

I want to bedent. Now that I have killed my greatest feeling, I have no reason left to live, except to flesh it out.

I know I have thrown away everything
Friends, Family, any hope of peace.

I have no feelings for my victim, and I never will, but I do have feelings, very real feelings. As a soldier loves his family even more after ~~being~~ ^{losing} ~~lives~~ lives, so I love life even more after my fight with a true monster, after being a firsthand witness to what others are dragged by merely imagining.

"Self worth is an illusion I can never share again"

An Ode to the killer

I know the reason
I know the reason for your hate
And I know the reason for your pain.
I know the reason for My Love,
and I know the reason
We are not the same.

God's Love
God's Love is the reason.
and God's Love will bring you down

God's Love is the only reason.

Show me
mercy, Lord
though I have sinned never

I Am wanted
I know for not why
But they are closing in they do want me...but what?
my head?
my soul?
my mind? (Smiley?)

They are so slow...
Why are they so god damned
Slow?

I just realized!
The pain is gone!
The PAIN IS GONE!
Now there is only

FEAR!!! like the Bear better
